House-to-House Search for Clues in Boys' Slaying

Chicago Police Seek to Find Missing Clothing

Distribute Circulars
In Six-Block Area
Where Believed Slain

CHICAGO (U)—Fifty policemen became handbill distributors today in a door-to-door canvass for clues to the wanton strangling of three young boys.

The handbills contained a detailed description of the clothing stripped from the youngsters before their battered bodies were dumped in a forest preserve ditch.

Police hoped householders might come across some of the clothing in trash cans, rubbish burners, garages or basements.

Eleven thousand of the circulars were printed, and their distribution was centered in a six-block area where the young victims were believed slain.

The victims, Robert Peterson, 13, John Schuessler, 13, and his brother, Anton Jr., 11, last were seen alive in the area Sunday night.

The circular instructs anyone who finds a clue to get in touch with Chief of Detectives John T. O'Malley.

So many reports were stacked on the desk of Lt. James McMahon in the homicide squad headquarters this morning it took him two hours to wade through them.

Every police detail was contributing time and men to the massive search.

Police themselves hunted in garbage cans, vacant lots and alleys for clues.

The boys' nude, mutilated bodies were found Tuesday, thrown into a forest preserve ditch like sacks of potatoes.

The triple murder is one of the most shocking crimes in Chicago's history, but authorities are divided about the motive behind it.

Two Different Theories
County officials, including Sheriff Joseph Lohman and Coroner Walter McCarron, have said the boys were probably murdered by one of the teenage gangs that roam the northwest side. But many county officials say the motive is still a mystery and may have its roots in sex perversion.

Authorities working on the teenage gang theory pointed out that a band of young toughs has been hanging out in the neighborhood.

It was theorized that one of the murdered boys gave the hoodlums a "smart answer" and a fight broke out.

Runaway Truck Kills Five in Grisly Accident

CUMBERLAND, Md. (U)—Authorities said today the driver of a runaway truck which smashed into a dump truck and an automobile, killing five persons, near here Wednesday will be charged with manslaughter.

Paul S. Myers, 25, Dover, Pa., who was the only survivor of the grisly accident in the heavily populated suburb of La Vale, was scheduled to be taken before a trial magistrate this morning to be booked on a charge of manslaughter with a motor vehicle.

Police said they were investigating reports that a damaged airplane repaired with friction tape caused the brakes on Myers' tractor-trailer, loaded with sheet aluminum, to fail as he descended Big Savage Mountain on U. S. Route 40 near Frostburg, five miles west of here.

Myers said he "prayed to God" that someone would think to call state police and have them try to get the road cleared "as the rig roared down a long grade through Frostburg's main street at 90 miles an hour. He said he battled for control of the runaway but when a tire blew the truck smashed into the rear of an automobile carrying four persons and then careened into a dump truck.

The driver of the dump truck, Samuel A. Breneman, 29, Springs, Pa., was decapitated in the collision, apparently by a sheet of aluminum from the truck load. The other four victims died in their flaming car. Myers walked away from the tangled wreckage of the three vehicles with only minor injuries.

The occupants of the car, all badly burned, were identified as Clifford P. Fearer, 38, assistant manager of Cumberland Steel Co.; Nellie Thomas, 31, payroll clerk and cashier at the Buchanan Lumber Co.; and Francis X. Spearman, 59, and Grace E. Lloyd, 35, clerical employees of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. All four were Frostburg residents, en route to their jobs here at the time of the accident.

Dulles Seeking Support For Geneva Strategy

Receives Full Mandate from Ike; Wants Bi-Partisan Aid

WASHINGTON (U)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles today sought bipartisan congressional support for his strategy to put Russia's new goodwill campaign to stiff practical tests at next week's Geneva Big Four parley.

Dulles returned Wednesday night from Denver where he received President Eisenhower's "full and comprehensive mandate to speak for our nation" at the four-power foreign ministers conference. Congressional backing was the only diplomatic weapon absent from Dulles' Geneva kit.

The secretary of state planned to review world developments with emphasis on Geneva, during a long noon meeting with 14 congressional leaders representing both political parties. The important conference immediately followed a White House National Security Council meeting presided over by Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Dulles reported that he and Mr. Eisenhower shared a "measured hope" for concrete achievements but not "spectacular results" at Geneva on European security and German unity, disarmament, and lowering of East-West barriers.

The administration's cautious approach to the Geneva conference was echoed in advance of today's meetings by House Republican Leader Joe Martin, one of those attending Dulles' briefing. About Geneva and Soviet tactics, Martin said:

"I believe we have got to stay on guard and that means keep your defenses up. The Soviets could change very quickly if they saw a chance to defeat us. Letting down our guard could be very disastrous."

Martin Says Eisenhower Could Win Another Term Without Any Strain

He pointed out that as president Mr. Eisenhower will get the best of care and can take what precautions are necessary. On his own as a farmer, he said, the President might well overdo.

Martin was asked if he had any direct information from Denver to support his optimism about the President's health. "Yes," he replied. "They tell me he's going to be well—fully recovered."

In other political developments: Texas Democratic Gov. Allan Shivers, an Eisenhower supporter in 1952, indicated he would vote Democratic in 1956 if the party nominates "a man I can support."

He indicated Adlai Stevenson was not that man.

Shivers suggested that Stevenson meet Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) in the California preferential primary. He said he believed Kefauver would win that contest.

Miley Receives Appointment as Illinois Supreme Court Marshal

Gov. William G. Stratton at Springfield today approved the acceptance by Robert G. Miley, Galatia, of the appointment of marshal to the Illinois Supreme court.

Miley is at present superintendent of State Parks and Memorials in the State Department of Conservation and will assume his new duties when the Supreme court meets on Nov. 14.

Miley will replace the late Harry Newman of Peoria, who died recently. He was offered the post by the entire court at the funeral of Mr. Newman two weeks ago, but answered that his first consideration was to the Governor and he would await approval of his acceptance of the post by Gov. Stratton. Stratton's office today announced it approved Miley's acceptance of the post.

The appointment was not solicited by Miley, but it was offered by the Supreme court members at the time of the Newman funeral, it was learned here.

The appointment as marshal is for an indefinite term and usually supreme court appointments are for life.

Mr. Miley will resign his post as superintendent of State Parks and Memorials to accept the Supreme court appointment. He is also chairman of the Saline County Republican Central committee and president of the Illinois Republican Chairmen's association.

Miley probably will be less active in politics due to the Supreme court appointment, sources here said today. He has been Saline County Republican chairman since 1950 and president of the Illinois association since 1952. He has been delegate to the past three Republican National Conventions.

He will continue to make his home on his farm near Galatia.

Congressman James E. Van Zandt Guest Speaker at Dinner Club Meeting Oct. 27

Congressman James E. Van Zandt from Pennsylvania's 20th District, a veteran of two world wars and a former three-time national commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be the guest of honor of the Southern Illinois Dinner club at its meeting Thursday evening, Oct. 27, at the Kurto Country club.

First elected to Congress in 1933, the Congressman from the Keystone state served two full terms before resigning during his third term to enlist in the armed forces of World War II. At the war's close his constituency immediately sent him back to Congress and has since reelected him every two years.

One of the most diligent of Representatives in the National House Van Zandt has slightly less than a 90% attendance record, a fact which probably accounts for his being widely consulted by his colleagues and being placed on committees dealing with Veteran Affairs, the Merchant Marine, Atomic Energy, Patents, Immigration and Naturalization.

It was during his 1949 term that Van Zandt, as a member of the Armed Services Committee, won the national spotlight by forcing an investigation of charges and counter-charges that were injuring the efficiency of the military unification program. He also won widespread recognition for his advocacy of a two-ocean navy prior to his military service in World War II. The policies he emphasized were subsequently adopted.

Van Zandt was released from active duty with the rank of Captain in 1946. U. S. Naval Reserve but still takes an annual tour of duty as a reserve officer. One of those tours was a two-month hitch in the Korean conflict during November and December 1952.

Dinner club members are asked to make advance reservations for the meeting with Rees Turner, secretary.

Dulles meets in Geneva next Thursday with Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, British Foreign Secretary Harold MacMillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay in what Mr. Eisenhower and Dulles have described as the "acid test" of Soviet policies. The meeting was set up at this summer's Big Four summit meeting at Geneva.

General Denies He Supported Yalta Agreement

Gives Bristling Reply to Report by Defense Department

WASHINGTON (U)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur admitted today he urged Russia's entry into the fight against Japan in World War II, but vigorously denied he ever supported concessions made to the Russians at the Yalta conference.

The famed former Pacific commander made the statements in a bristling reply to a Defense Department report on long-secret wartime decisions which showed that MacArthur had strongly favored Russia as an 11th hour ally in the fight against Japan.

But he said he had not been consulted before the Yalta conference in February, 1945, exercised no influence on it, and knew nothing about its secret agreements.

"I repeat," MacArthur said, "had my views been requested concerning the secret agreements bearing upon Russia's entry into the Pacific War I would have opposed them as fantastic."

Long Political Controversy
MacArthur's views on Russia's entry into the war against Japan have been the center of a swirling political controversy for years.

The Democrats have claimed the pressure of MacArthur and other U. S. military leaders to get Russia into the war was the main reason the late President Roosevelt agreed at Yalta to postwar territorial concessions for Russia in the Far East.

The Republicans have claimed that as a result of Roosevelt's sold out the country at Yalta. And as late as last spring MacArthur said he would have opposed Russia's entry into the war at the time of Yalta if he had been consulted.

In his 350-word statement issued from his Waldorf Astoria headquarters in New York, MacArthur declared any attempt to associate him with the concessions made at Yalta would be "wholly unwarranted" and "pervert the truth and the record."

He declared the Defense Department documents released Wednesday night "confirm I was never consulted concerning the Yalta conference, that I exercised no influence whatsoever thereon and knew nothing about its secret agreements."

Opposed Yalta Concessions
MacArthur said the controversy never was over whether Russia should have entered the war. He said this "should clearly have been done at the very beginning."

The real point at issue, he said, was whether "we should have made vital territorial concessions at the expense of Chinese sovereignty to induce Russia to come in at the end."

"There is not the slightest hint of documentation over my signature," he said, "which even remotely suggest my support of these territorial concessions which so adversely altered the course of future events in Asia."

Then he reiterated he would have opposed them.

In the Defense Department documents, Col. Paul L. Freeman reported to his defense chiefs on an interview he had with MacArthur on Feb. 13, 1945, just after the Yalta conference.

In this interview, Freeman said MacArthur expressed the opinion that Russia would want "all of Manchuria, Korea and probably part of North China" and that "seizure of territory was inevitable."

John Hodiak's Fatal Heart Attack Stuns Hollywood, Saddened by Four Other Deaths

HOLLYWOOD — Actor John Hodiak's fatal heart attack stunned today Hollywood's film colony, already saddened by the recent deaths of four other movie stars.

Hodiak, 41, a Pittsburgh coal miner's son, pushed his way to theatrical stardom in a career that began at the age of 11, when he acted in Russian and Ukrainian plays in a parish. He was shaving Wednesday morning when he collapsed suddenly and died of coronary thrombosis.

Death came as the tall, handsome actor headed for new screen stardom after his movie career temporarily stalled. Critics were praising him for his performance as a prosecuting attorney in a new film, "Trial," which opened recently throughout the country.

Other deaths which have rocked Hollywood since late summer were those of Carmen Miranda, Susan Ball, Robert Francis and James Dean.

The careers of Miss Ball, who died of cancer, and Francis and Dean, killed in plane and auto crashes, respectively, were among the most promising in Hollywood. Miss Miranda, the fiery Latin-American entertainer, was reestablishing herself as a top Hollywood performer when she died suddenly—like Hodiak—of a heart attack.

Although Hodiak's friends and family said he was healthy, and had no record of heart trouble, doctors explained that the actor had high blood pressure and there was "a bad family heart history." Hodiak lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hodiak, a sister, Mrs. Anne Silvia, and a brother, Walter Jr., in a suburban San Fernando Valley home. His sister heard him fall and found him dead on the bathroom floor.

Hodiak, rejected for World War II service because of hypertension, reached film stardom in such pictures as "Lifeboat" and "A Bell for Adano."

When his film career hit a temporary lull, Hodiak turned to the stage. His performance in "The Caine Mutiny Court Martial" brought him critical acclaim and offers of new choice roles in Hollywood.

Bride Socked by Hubby, Angry When Police Refuse to Beat Him Up

CUSHING, Okla. (AP) — A young Cushing bride, angry at her husband because he socked her in the eye when she burned the gravy, became more angry at police who refused to beat him up.

She said her husband of less than a year punched her "because I burned the gravy." She called police and asked them to return the punch for her.

When police refused, she told them indignantly "Mother told me to call the police if he ever touched me and you'd fix him. What's the police for, anyway?"

Though it is an extinct volcano, Mount Rainier still has jets of steam issuing from its sides occasionally.

Continue Talks to End Strike at Westinghouse Plants

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Some 44,000 workers remained out on strike at 30 Westinghouse Electric Corp. plants today.

Negotiators for the company and the CIO International Union of Electrical Workers met again in an effort to break the deadlock in wage talks which began last Sept. 15.

Two bargaining sessions Wednesday apparently failed to make progress toward settlement of wage, length of contract and time-study disputes which sparked the nationwide walkout last Sunday midnight.

Set $1.95 Toll On Indiana's First Turnpike

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — A $1.95 toll for driving a passenger car across northern Indiana on the state's first turnpike was approved late Wednesday by the State Toll Road Commission.

The east-west road, scheduled for completion in 13 months, will run 156 miles between the Illinois and Ohio state lines. The suggested toll is at the rate of 1.25 cents per mile.

Commission members said this is comparable to adjoining toll roads. The Ohio toll averages 1.24 cents per mile, New York 1.25, Pennsylvania 1.04 and New Jersey 1.48.

Truck tolls, originally figured on the basis of weight, were newly figured on number of axles. They will range from $2.75 to $13.75, which the commission said varied little from other states.

An axle determination instead of weight was selected for trucks to simplify toll collecting, the commission said.

The recommended tolls now must be approved by trustees representing bondholders in the 250 million dollar project.

Faure Shakes Up French Cabinet

PARIS — Premier Edgar Faure shook up his cabinet today amid reports that he will dissolve the National Assembly and call for new general elections before the end of the year.

The government reshuffle started plugging the holes left when four Gaullist Party ministers walked out on Faure two weeks ago in a bitter dispute over his plans for moderate reforms in Morocco and Algeria.

Rickey Resigns as General Manager of Pirates, But Will Retain Advisory Post

PITTSBURGH — Branch Rickey, still insisting he'll "lick the greatest challenge of my life," said today he will fight for a National League pennant for the Pittsburgh Pirates even after resigning Nov. 1 as general manager of the club.

"I will refuse to sit back and be a watcher," Rickey, now 74, said after announcing Wednesday he would step down as general manager and executive vice president of the habitual tail-end Pirates.

"My challenge remains here and I'm going to lick it. I will remain as an active advisor until I have either done so or died," the bushy-browed executive said.

Five-Year Regime
Rickey came here in late 1950 after highly successful tenures as general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals and the Brooklyn Dodgers, where he built pennant winners. But under his five-year regime, Pittsburgh finished last in the league four times and once shared seventh place with the Chicago Cubs. Three of his Pirate teams lost 100 or more games.

The "Top Branch" said he realized what he was doing when he accepted the task of rebuilding the hapless Pirates. "But I have learned the hard way."

"I have suffered and endured many disappointments over these years," he added without regret.

"When you start from nothing to build something, it is not an easy task. I knew that when I accepted the job."

Once when the Pirates wound up in last place, Rickey made the classic remark, "They got there simply on merit."

Rickey's five-year contract expires Nov. 1, but it carries an option which gives him the right to remain as an advisor at half his $100,000 annual salary.

To Develop Players
"That's right, I'm staying on as an advisor. I will devote my time to developing and buying players in order to help Pittsburgh," he said. "If there is one thing I must accomplish, it is to bring a pennant here."

There was no immediate announcement concerning his possible successor as general manager. His son, Branch Jr., who served under him as farm director, and Joe Brown, son of the famous comedian, figured prominently in speculation.

Nor was there any mention of a successor to Field Manager Fred Haney, who was fired by Rickey on the last day of the 1955 season.

No Intention Of Firing Brown, Stratton Says
SPRINGFIELD — Gov. William G. Stratton said today he has no intention of firing State Police Supt. Phil M. Brown and "there was never any question" about his decision.

Brown had come under fire for an order issued to state police to make 1,000 pound overweight allowances for trucks.

Stratton said there is "absolutely no evidence that the order was made with any intent to gain personally."

He said the order was a "formalization of a policy that has always existed in the public safety department."

Brown had said he issued the order to make allowance for snow and ice picked up by trucks during the winter.

But a Chicago newspaper (The Sun-Times) disclosed the order was still in effect last summer.

Stratton said the delay in rescinding the order was "just an oversight."

He said Brown submitted a report to him in a meeting at the executive mansion Wednesday night.

Asked if he was satisfied with the report, Stratton said "I am satisfied to the point that there was no venality in Brown's actions."

On Oct. 12, Stratton said he would call Brown in for an explanation on "eight or nine points" and it "had better be good."

He said "I've been dissatisfied with the way things have been doing."

But today the governor said there "was never any question" that he would retain Brown in his job.

Smith Retains Title in Bout With Carter

CINCINNATI, Ohio — Wallace (Bud) Smith, elated at ending Jimmy Carter's fantastic "on again, off again" romance with the half-hour of calculating, said today, "I guess everybody will realize, I'm really the 'champ' now."

Although Smith was champion when he entered the ring at the Cincinnati Garden before 6,693 hometown fans for his first defense Wednesday night, Carter of New York was favored at 8-5 to win back the 135-pound crown.

But Bud's aggressive, left-hooking attack prevented a 31-year-old Carter from winning the title for the fourth time, although Bud was nearly knocked out in the 13th round of the thrilling, bruising 15-round fight.

Smith wound up with a unanimous decision, after more than a half-hour of calculating and correcting the addition of one of the judges.

A "Rubber" Match
It was the third and "rubber" match between the two Negroes—the best combination boxer-punchers in the 135-pound division. Carter had won a decision over Bud on May 28, 1950—before Jimmy first became champion.

Smith took the title from Carter on a split decision at Boston last June 29. And he made it definite with the unanimous verdict on Wednesday night.

Each scaled 135 pounds, exactly the lightweight limit, for their thriller, which attracted a gate of $50,441, and was televised and broadcast nationally for a $30,000 fee. Bud and Jimmy were guaranteed $18,000 each.

Greece, Brazil Elected to UN Vacancies

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — The United Nations General Assembly, entangled in its worst election snarl in history, today elected Greece and Brazil to the remaining vacancies on the Economic and Social Council.

Hopelessly deadlocked after nine ballots, the assembly heeded American advice and suspended voting for the other two major councils—economic and social and trusteeship.

The Philippines, backed by the United States, held a slim lead over Yugoslavia, supported by Russia and Britain acting independently, but was nine votes short of the required two-thirds majority.

A similar snarl developed as the assembly passed to the voting for the 18-nation Economic and Social Council. After five votes Wednesday night, the council had succeeded in polling the required majority for only four of the six vacancies which will occur Jan. 1.

These places were taken by the United States, Canada, Indonesia and Yugoslavia.

Four more ballots—equaling the Security Council total of nine—were required today before the remaining two Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) places were filled. Brazil was elected on the seventh ballot and Greece on the ninth.

Plead Innocent to Gaming Charges; Freed On Bond
MARION, Ill. — Two Williamson county men pleaded innocent to gambling charges and were released on bond today in Marion.

Mario Crespi and John Oglesby appeared in Williamson county court as a result of state police gambling and vice raids last Saturday.

Crespi, who was charged with keeping gaming devices in his tavern at Colp, was released on bond of $2500. Dice and blackjack tables were seized in his tavern.

Oglesby, whom authorities said was previously convicted on a gambling charge, was charged with operating a gaming device and was released on bond of $3500.

Both cases were continued to Friday.

A charge of keeping gaming devices also had been filed against Elmo Farris, operator of the Mariner's Club near Johnston City. Farris pleaded guilty Wednesday and was fined $500 and costs. State police found nine slot machines at Farris' place.

Two women charged with morals offenses as a result of a raid on Ma Hatchett's place in Colp are to appear in court at Marion Monday. Juanita Boykins and Nattie Porter are charged with being inmates of a house of ill-fame and soliciting for prostitution.

Wife of Randolph County Sup't of Schools Dies in Auto Collision
CHESTER, Ill. — Mrs. Marguerite Carlton, wife of Randolph County School Supt. Ned Carlton, was killed Wednesday night in a two-car collision on Ill. 150 four miles northeast of here.

Mrs. Carlton was a passenger in a car driven by Mrs. Helen C. Wittenborn, Chester, who was hurt seriously. The other driver, Virgil W. Blind, 25, Chester, suffered minor injuries.

State police said the accident apparently happened when the Wittenborn car swerved across the highway and was struck on the right side by Blind's car.

Smith Retains Title in Bout With Carter

CINCINNATI, Ohio — Wallace (Bud) Smith, elated at ending Jimmy Carter's fantastic "on again, off again" romance with the half-hour of calculating, said today, "I guess everybody will realize, I'm really the 'champ' now."

Although Smith was champion when he entered the ring at the Cincinnati Garden before 6,693 hometown fans for his first defense Wednesday night, Carter of New York was favored at 8-5 to win back the 135-pound crown.

But Bud's aggressive, left-hooking attack prevented a 31-year-old Carter from winning the title for the fourth time, although Bud was nearly knocked out in the 13th round of the thrilling, bruising 15-round fight.

Smith wound up with a unanimous decision, after more than a half-hour of calculating and correcting the addition of one of the judges.

A "Rubber" Match
It was the third and "rubber" match between the two Negroes—the best combination boxer-punchers in the 135-pound division. Carter had won a decision over Bud on May 28, 1950—before Jimmy first became champion.

Smith took the title from Carter on a split decision at Boston last June 29. And he made it definite with the unanimous verdict on Wednesday night.

Each scaled 135 pounds, exactly the lightweight limit, for their thriller, which attracted a gate of $50,441, and was televised and broadcast nationally for a $30,000 fee. Bud and Jimmy were guaranteed $18,000 each.

Greece, Brazil Elected to UN Vacancies

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — The United Nations General Assembly, entangled in its worst election snarl in history, today elected Greece and Brazil to the remaining vacancies on the Economic and Social Council.

Hopelessly deadlocked after nine ballots, the assembly heeded American advice and suspended voting for the other two major councils—economic and social and trusteeship.

The Philippines, backed by the United States, held a slim lead over Yugoslavia, supported by Russia and Britain acting independently, but was nine votes short of the required two-thirds majority.

A similar snarl developed as the assembly passed to the voting for the 18-nation Economic and Social Council. After five votes Wednesday night, the council had succeeded in polling the required majority for only four of the six vacancies which will occur Jan. 1.

These places were taken by the United States, Canada, Indonesia and Yugoslavia.

Four more ballots—equaling the Security Council total of nine—were required today before the remaining two Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) places were filled. Brazil was elected on the seventh ballot and Greece on the ninth.

Five Children Perish in Fire
NOBLESVILLE, Ind. — Five small children perished today when fire swept their small home in a "shantytown" section of the city.

Tom Malone was burned seriously trying to save his sons and daughters, and his wife was near collapse from shock. They were taken to Riverview Hospital.

Cause of the blaze was not determined immediately. The oldest Malone child, a 7-year-old boy, escaped unharmed.

Bull Dogs Face Determined Tigers at Herrin Friday Night

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs travel to Herrin tomorrow night to face a grid outfit the Herrin coach, Leodio Cabutti, said has shown more desire and spirit than any team he has had in the seven years he has been at the Williamson county school.

He made his remark before the season started and apparently is staying with it. The way his boys have played. The Tigers won all their games up to last Friday night when they dropped a 20-12 contest to Benton after leading into the last quarter.

The Herrin team isn't so big but it has shown fight, determination and savvy. The Tigers are directed by a veteran quarterback, Jim McPherson, and two scabbacks who are hard to stop. Ron Gray, 150 pounds, and Gerald Jerald, 140 pounds, both senior veterans. Caluffetti Works On Defense

The fullback, outstanding Charles Hamilton, 180-pounder, was hurt and out of the Benton game but is expected to be back this week.

The Herrin team is an outfit that can get the jump on another even if the team isn't very, very careful and Coach Lawrence Caluffetti realizes that. This week he is working on defensive alignments to try to stop the varied Herrin attack and also is working on running plays he hopes will work.

With the two regular Bull Dog halfbacks, Jack Wright and Fred McKenzie, on the injured list, he has been using a backfield consisting of Wayman Hefner, Mike Hays, Trevor Whiteside and Tony Beal. Hays and Whiteside saw considerable action at halfback in the Harrisburg-Centralia game last week because of injuries to Wright and McKenzie.

If Wright, an outstanding punter, is unable to kick, the job undoubtedly will be taken over by Jim Williams, end.

Fine Local Linemen
Coach Caluffetti this week has been stressing to his boys that Herrin will be harder to beat this week than ever, because of the defeat by Benton last week. Herrin, with a 2-1 record, must defeat Harrisburg (3-0) to stay in contention for the South Seven crown, or a piece of it, and will be fighting down to the last minute to remain in the race.

But Caluffetti also knows that he has some mighty fine linemen who can be of great help to the local backs and that if they continue to play charged-up football as they have in the past, the locals have a good chance of taking the game.

He has some "old pros" on his line like Richard Hess, Ken Price, Ronnie Williams, Everett Evans, Jay Waite, Joe Dorris and Jim Williams.

IAC Title at Stake in SIU-Western Tilt

CARBONDALE, Ill. — The I. I. conference leadership will be at stake when Southern Illinois university clashes with Michigan State Normal at Ypsilanti, Mich., Saturday afternoon.

Both teams have perfect 2-0 conference slates, and the winner will become the title favorite.

"Michigan Normal has a definite advantage," said SIU Coach Al Kawai. "Last year they tied for the conference championship, and they have most of their team back. Also, it's their homecoming game."

Kawai added, "I saw Michigan Normal beat Western two weeks ago and they're plenty rough. We will have to be sky high to win."

But Kawai isn't counting Southern out. He cautioned, "We've never gone into a game we expected to lose."

Injury-wise Southern is in good shape with only one player—freshman end Robert Batura—definitely out of the lineup. Batura injured his leg in practice last week and probably will be out the rest of the month.

Sophomore halfback Richard Krieschok injured a leg muscle in the Eastern game and may not make the Michigan trip.

Southern has only three days of practice before leaving for Ypsilanti Thursday morning. "That's not much time," observed Kawai. "To prepare for a team as tough as Michigan Normal."

With six games remaining, Southern already has won as many or more games than any season since 1950, and the Salukis have an excellent chance to have their best season since 1947.

Not to be counted out of the conference race is Central Michigan. Since losing to SIU, 14-13 earlier this month, the Hurons have bombarded Northern, 61-0, and blanketed Western Illinois, 20-0. Central Illinois is bolstered by Little All-American fullback Jim Podely, who returned to the team after Central lost to Southern.

Olympic Festival To Raise Funds to Send Team to Winter Games

NEW YORK (UPI)—Wes Santee, Paul Anderson, Hayes Alan Jenkins, Tenley Albright and a bevy of other world and national champions will compete in six sports during tonight's Olympic Festival at Madison Square Garden.

The program will open a nationwide fund-raising drive to raise the estimated one million dollars needed to send the nation's top amateur athletes to the winter Olympics, next January at Cortina d'Ampezzo, Italy, and to the summer competition the following November at Melbourne, Australia.

Swedish Scientist Wins Nobel Prize For Medicine

STOCKHOLM, Sweden — A Swedish research scientist won the 1955 Nobel Prize for medicine today over five famed American candidates.

Prof. Axel Hugo Theorell won the coveted plaque and the cash prize of 190,214 Swedish crowns ($36,720) for his 20-year-old research into the secrets of enzymes, the complex organic bits that cause chemical transformations of material in plants and animals.

It was the first year since 1950 that an American failed to win a share of the Nobel Prize for medicine.

Two California scientists who have studied mushroom mutations to determine how genes affect the metabolism of cells in human heredity were unofficially reported to be runners-up.

They are George W. Beadle, 52-year-old genetics professor at Pasadena's California Institute of Technology, and Edward L. Tatum, 46, biology professor of Stanford University.

Also considered in the running, although the list of candidates was secret, were New York heart specialists Andre Cournand and Dickinson W. Richards, and brain specialist Vincent du Vigneaud of Cornell University.

New Studebakers To Abandon European Styling

CHICAGO — Studebaker-Packard Corp. today revealed the European styling is being abandoned in the new Studebakers for 1956.

The corporation, celebrating its first year under a merger, privately showed its lines, highlighted by the Studebaker designs which are aimed at the competitive American low-price market.

Corporation President James J. Nance said the firm will offer three separate series next year, the Packard, which will be introduced to the public Nov. 2; the Clipper, Nov. 6; and the Studebaker, Nov. 22.

Dealers were shown the new cars last week in Detroit. Prices for the new lines have not yet been announced, but Nance said "we have assured our dealers they will be competitive."

Attend Dealer Showing Of Packard Autos

Mr. and Mrs. B. Burgess of the Packard and Hudson automobile agency in Harrisburg and Roselore have returned from Chicago, where they attended the first showing of the 1956 Packard automobiles, at a meeting of Packard dealers held at the Conrad Hilton hotel.

Here's a trick that makes a treat... baked apple doughnuts that have the airy lightness of a puffy deep-fried doughnut yet are baked in muffin pans. The flavored freshness of new fall apples plus flavor-fresh Clabber Girl make for a fine example of fresh ingredient baking.

BAKED APPLE DOUGHNUTS

Yield: 12 doughnuts

- |  |                                    |
|--|------------------------------------|
| 1 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour        | 1 egg, beaten                      |
| 1 1/2 teaspoons Clabber Girl Baking Powder | 1/4 cup milk                       |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt                          | 1/2 cup grated raw apple           |
| 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg                 | 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine |
| 1/2 cup sugar                              | 1/2 cup sugar                      |
| 1/2 cup shortening                         | 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon         |

Sift together flour, Baking Powder, salt, nutmeg, and 1/2 cup sugar. Cut in shortening until mixture is fine. Mix together egg, milk, and apple; add all at once to dry ingredients and mix quickly but thoroughly. Fill dry ingredients and mix quickly but thoroughly. Fill 2 1/2 x 1 1/4-inch muffin pans 3/4 full. Bake in a preheated 375° (moderate) oven 20 to 25 minutes or until golden brown. Remove from pans. Immediately roll doughnuts in melted butter or margarine, then in sugar and cinnamon which have been mixed together. Serve warm.

College Enrollments at Record High in Illinois

DECATUR, Ill. — An 8 per cent increase in Illinois college enrollments was reported today.

H. E. Temmer, examiner and recorder at the Navy Pier branch of the University of Illinois, said a survey showed 150,286 students enrolled at 69 Illinois colleges and universities.

This compared with 139,265 last year, and was the highest statewide enrollment since the survey was launched in 1946.

The highest enrollment recorded previously in the survey was 144,999, in 1948.

Two Men Burn to Death in Skid Row Hotel Fire

CHICAGO — Fire swept through a skid row hotel Wednesday night, burning two men to death and injuring eight others.

The dead men were trapped on the upper two floors of the Adams Hotel, which is regarded as a slight cut above the usual brand of flop houses along tawdry West Madison St.

One of the victims was identified by a rent receipt found in his pocket as Egbert Lonergan, 60. The other man was burned beyond recognition.

The two deaths brought to 54 the total of persons killed in "flop-house" fires in Chicago this year. Officials said the death toll was cut down Wednesday night because many of the guests had not returned to their rooms. In previous skid row blazes, many of the victims have been killed while they were sunk in drunken stupors.

Pioneers for Christ Young People's Rally at Giant City Oct. 22-23

Rev. James G. Johnson, field missionary of the American Sunday School Union, announces that a relative new organization has been adopted into its work which is known as Pioneers for Christ.

It is a movement in the framework of the American Sunday School Union which followed a discussion of the alarming developments among young people, particularly of high school age. Its aim is to maintain a year-round program of Christian training for older youth, particularly those who have been brought under the influence of young people's Bible conferences.

The first rally in Illinois was held last year at Eldorado. The second Illinois statewide rally will be held at Giant City State park Oct. 22-23. The rally will begin Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and close on Sunday afternoon. Young people are to bring their bedding, personal needs and Bible or Testament. The cost per person will be $2 which will cover insurance, meals and lodging.

Cooperating missionaries in the rally will be Rev. Jesse R. Hastings, LaVerne district superintendent of Chicago; James G. Johnson, Eldorado; Fred G. Attie of Murphysboro; Leroy Cunningham of Mt. Vernon; Wilford Young of Rockford.

Young people in this area should register with Rev. James G. Johnson, 1513 Olive street, Eldorado, Ill.

Average Income $2,300 During 1954

WASHINGTON — The Census Bureau reports that the average income of Americans in 1954 was $2,300, about the same as in 1953.

The bureau said about 78 million persons, 14 years of age or more, had some sort of income last year. It said the average income of about 50 million men in this total was $3,200 and for 28 million women about $1,200.

Champaign Soldier Fatally Shot in Argument; Chicago Man is Held

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — A Champaign soldier was shot and killed early today, apparently in the course of an argument over another man's ability to drive.

Champaign County Sheriff Everett Hedrick identified the victim as Cpl. William Schroeder, who lives with his wife at Champaign. Held in connection with the shooting was Paul E. Cheney, 52, Chicago, who operates the Roselawn cemetery at Springfield and Aca-cia cemetery in Chicago.

Hedrick said Schroeder and his wife and Cheney were at a party at the home of Mrs. Maurice Bauman here which continued into the early morning hours today.

He said Schroeder and Cheney apparently became involved in an argument over whether Cheney was too intoxicated to drive to Springfield, and the two men left the house to continue the arguing in the driveway.

The sheriff said the women, who did not leave the house, heard one shot fired and then went outside to find Schroeder lying on the ground. He was dead on arrival at a Champaign hospital.

Hedrick said Cheney would be charged with murder.

The dead man's military station was not immediately determined. Hedrick described Cheney, Bauman and Schroeder as "old friends." Bauman is currently serving a term in federal prison for violations of federal housing loan laws.

Cheney was involved in a controversy with police in Springfield in 1952 after he was arrested for alleged drunken driving.

He charged police officers with violations of his civil rights and was in turn charged with leading police on a wild chase through downtown Springfield. The dispute never was settled.

Wife Weighs In at Court But Fails to Reconcile with Mate

CHICAGO — Mrs. Lillian Korzen, 44, who lost weight at the suggestion of a judge, weighed in today on city scales near the poundage she had sought, but she failed to reconcile differences with her estranged husband.

Mrs. Korzen and her husband Michael, 42, parents of two, conferred for 17 minutes in the chambers of Circuit Court Judge Charles S. Dougherty but did not make up. Dougherty set Dec. 8 for a hearing on Korzen's suit for divorce, charging cruelty, and his wife's countersuit for separate maintenance, in which she alleges adultery.

On the city sealer's scales, fully dressed, Mrs. Korzen weighed 145 pounds, although Wednesday night on another set of scales and wearing approximately the same clothing she had been near 140 pounds.

Korzen sued for divorce in May, and said his wife was "just too fat." Circuit Judge Cornelius Harrington suggested that Mrs. Korzen, who then weighed 190 pounds, try to lose at least 40 pounds. He postponed court action to allow her time to carry out her diet pledge.

SOMETHING TO REMEMBER

When you buy a new automobile, you're naturally interested in power, style, interior, etc. But you should also bear in mind two other very important items: SERVICE and FINANCE COSTS. When either or both costs are excessive, you don't get value received for the price of your new car. When you buy a new Dodge, Plymouth, or a Dependable Used Car from B. W. Rude Motor Company, you KNOW you'll get the good, dependable service your car needs, and reputable financing which we'll be glad to explain to you in detail.

WREN'S WINNINGS—Yules Wren, county clerk of Gallatin county, is a fancier of Fox hounds and has entered dogs in Fox hunts and shows for years and with great success. At left he is shown with the pride of his pack of Fox hounds, Big Top. On the table back of Mr. Wren and Big Top are trophies won by Mr. Wren's dogs over the past years and at right is a bed spread made of ribbons also won by dogs entered by Mr. Wren in hunts and shows.

Fox Hounds of Gallatin County Clerk Yules Wren Win Many Trophies, Ribbons

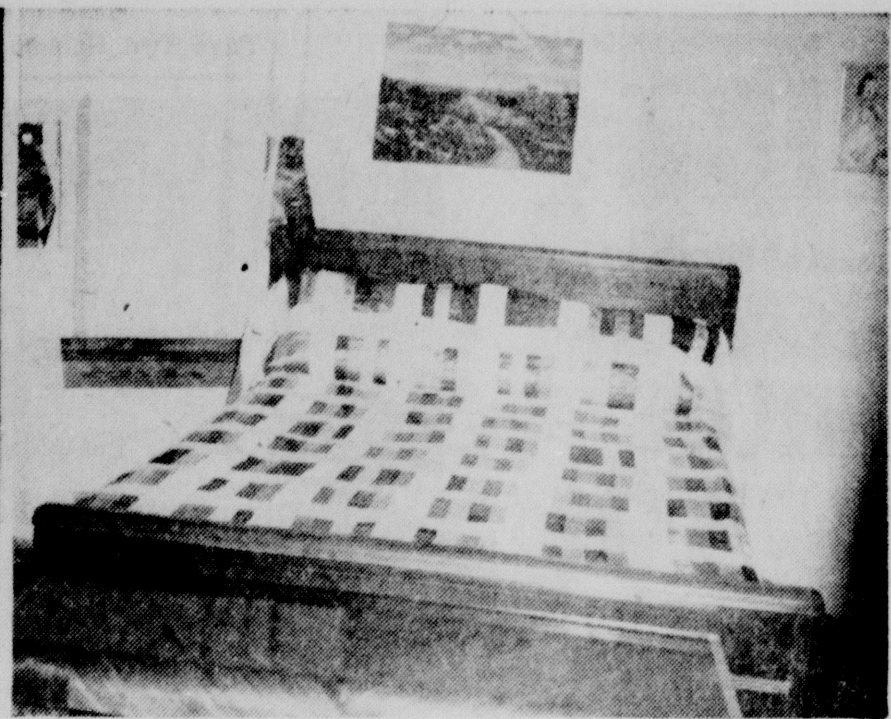

Yules Wren, county clerk of Gallatin county, is the proud possessor of 31 trophies and approximately 300 ribbons won by Fox hounds he has entered in Fox hunts and shows during the past 20 years.

Two years ago, with the ribbons getting wrinkled and misplaced Mr. Wren's sister, Mrs. Rose Foster of Eldorado suggested they be made into a bed spread.

Mrs. Foster used 216 of the ribbons, including five purple ones awarded for grand champions, 48 blue ones won for first places and others on down to tenth place winners, to make a beautiful spread which covers the bed in the guest room. There are more than enough ribbons left to make two pillow cases and additional ribbons are being won by Wren entries at every hunt and show.

Just last week Mr. Wren went to the Kentucky Dam Fox Hunt at Murray, Ky., and the Central City Fox hound show and won five trophies and 13 ribbons.

Mr. Wren has had winners at trophy and the champion dog "froze" in a pose and held it until patted by Mr. Wren and told "that's all Big Boy."

At present Mr. Wren has ten Fox hounds, including several puppies.

Mr. and Mrs. Wren live in a beautiful country home south of Shawneetown in the Ringgold community. They have a lot of chickens and many head of fine cattle on their farm.

Mrs. Wren teaches the Ringgold school and last year had the spelling champion of this area. Miss Patricia Useton, a pupil of Mrs. Wren, won the Gallatin county spelling match, went on to take top honors in the Tri-State match at Evansville and finished seventh in the national spelling match at Washington, D. C., in May.

Tips on Traffic Safety

By CHARLES F. CARPENTIER
Secretary of State

With the hours of darkness becoming longer at this time of the year it might be well to review the importance of proper use of a vehicle's lights. Statistics prove that nighttime travel is four times as deadly as travel by day. But it needn't be. A few precautions on the highways at night may save your life.

Do not try and "get by" with the use of your parking lights at sunset. Instead, turn on your driving lights as the parking lights aren't strong enough to be easily seen by other motorists and pedestrians.

Do not "over-drive" your lights. "Over-driving" is traveling too fast for the distance you can see with car lights. If you are traveling at 50 miles per hour and suddenly spot a stalled vehicle or other obstruction on the highway 200 feet in front of you, you will not be able to stop in time to avoid a collision.

If the driver of an approaching vehicle does not lower his lights do not try to retaliate by not dimming your lights. You only add to your own danger as well as to the other driver's. Here's why: If you were traveling at 60 miles per hour and blinded by glaring lights it would take you seven seconds to normally recover full vision. In that short space of time you would have traveled one city block.

A copy of the completely new "Rules of the Road" booklet will be sent to you free upon request. Write to CHARLES F. CARPENTIER, Secretary of State, Springfield, Illinois.

1956 CHRYSLER FEATURES FLIGHT-SWEPT REAR FENDERS—The Chrysler New Yorker for 1956 offers new flight-swept rear fenders which emphasize the low, slim, taut lines of the car. It features a new 280-horsepower FirePower V-8 engine, fully-automatic push-button drive, new center-plane brakes and super-safe LifeGuard door latches as standard equipment. Chrysler New Yorkers are available in a new four-door hardtop, six-passenger sedan, Newport hardtop, St. Regis hardtop, convertible coupe and high-style Town and Country Wagon. The new Chrysler will be on display Friday at the J. F. Harper and Son Garage, local dealer.

1956 Chryslers With Greater Power On Display Friday at J. F. Harper and Son

The completely new 1956 Chrysler, featuring such innovations as push-button shifting, high fidelity record player, LifeGuard door latches and instant-heat aircraft-type heater, will be on display Friday at the J. F. Harper and Son Garage, local dealer.

The forward look of the 1956 Chrysler lines is accentuated further by the use of flight-swept rear fenders.

Two new V-8 engines — a more powerful 280-horsepower FirePower V-8 in the Chrysler New Yorker line and a 225-horsepower Spitfire V-8 in the Chrysler Windsor line, offer outstanding performance and increased economy. A new high-efficiency modification available on Windors boosts Spitfire engines to a full 250-horsepower.

For 1956 Chrysler also offers new flight-swept rear fenders, new high-efficiency vacuum Power-Smooth brakes, new push-type door handles, new improved Safety Beam headlights and a new rotary-type deck-lid latch.

The 1956 Chryslers are offered in two lines—the Chrysler Windsor and the Chrysler New Yorker. Wheelbase measurements of all cars is 126 inches. They are available in a choice of 17 solid colors and 135 color combinations.

The Chrysler Windsor is available in a completely new four-door hardtop, six-passenger sedan, Nassau hard top, Newport hardtop, convertible coupe and the Town and Country Wagon. The Chrysler New Yorker line includes a new four-door hardtop, six-passenger sedan, Newport hardtop, St. Regis hardtop, convertible coupe and Town and Country Wagon.

New style-setting flight-swept rear fenders emphasize the low, slim, taut lines characteristic of the Forward Look. Fin-like, the new fenders lend an aircraft feeling to the overall design. Chrysler's 1956 hardtop and convertible models are five inches longer than last year.

For 1956 Chrysler introduces a revolutionary new push-button drive, another step toward the completely-automatic automobile. Located conveniently to the left of the steering column, the push-button selector gives the driver true finger-tip control over his car at all times.

Offered as standard equipment is the LifeGuard door latch. Extensive tests have proved that this new latch, with interlocking pieces of heavy-gauge steel on both door and striker, virtually eliminates the possibility of car doors flying open on impact.

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: Birthday Presents To Ike Could Take Form Of People-To-People Friendship Projects: Home Builders Cement Good Will By Inviting Russian Housing Experts; Chief Orie Phillips OK'd Secret Microphone In Jury Room.

WASHINGTON. — The Eisenhower cabinet gave its chief some quince trees for his Gettysburg farm on his 65th birthday—a very thoughtful present. I would like to suggest something different. It could be donated by many Americans over a period of time and I know would cheer the heart of the man in Denver who cannot work at these things himself.

At Geneva last summer, where I watched Ike work, he proposed a greater and continuing exchange of people between the United States and Russia as a means of winning the peace. Even before he made that proposal, a group of Russian farm experts had arrived in the USA, while a group of American farmers had arrived in Russia in an exchange which helped cement good will among peoples as never since the days of UNRRA or the first mingling of American-Russian troops at the River Elbe on V-E Day.

On top of this the home builders, on their own, and without any help from government, have brought a delegation of Russian housing experts to the United States and are taking them on a friendly tour of American housing projects which is sure to build good will for the future.

Meanwhile Ambassador Bohlen has reported to the State Department from Moscow that already the new Russian line of peace and friendship has become so popular and the Russian people so solid on it that the Kremlin could not change without risking grave unrest at home.

In other words, friendship between peoples is the best insurance we have against war.

and against the Fund for the Republic, both critical of his security precautions.

I remember at a luncheon with Eisenhower in New York in the spring of 1948 I proposed a friendship train to Russia to try to accomplish people-to-people friendship. His reaction was negative, and perhaps my idea was ahead of its time. But today the time for people-to-people friendship is ripe and the idea already taking root.

So I would like to propose that the best and most lasting birthday present the American people could give would be to carry on the Geneva idea of getting people acquainted.

If, for instance, the American Medical Association did what the home builders have done and arranged for reciprocal visits of doctors; if the American Bar Association arranged for reciprocal visits of lawyers; if teachers, university professors, the engineering societies, architects, service clubs, churches, women's clubs, continued this idea, it would lead to an understanding which no ruler in the Kremlin, no matter how belligerent, could easily put aside.

Moreover, it would be a great birthday present to a man now unable to work at these things himself. Why not get a message to him promising such an exchange right now? The birthday presents that come in a day or two late are sometimes appreciated most.

SECRET JURY BUG
There's more than meets the eye behind the Senate investigation of the hidden microphone placed in a Wichita, Kan., federal grand jury by the University of Chicago law school.

Attorney General Brownell, when he heard about it, got in touch with Judge Orie Phillips of Denver, a Republican, a good friend of Ike's and chief judge of the 10th Circuit U. S. Court of Appeals. Brownell wanted to start some fireworks that would reach against the University of Chicago and against the Fund for the Republic, both critical of his security precautions.

However, what Brownell didn't know was that Ike's good friend, Judge Phillips, had OK'd the placing of the secret microphone in the Wichita jury room. In fact, District Judge Delmas Hill of Kansas and the University of Chicago staff refused to go ahead with the tap until Judge Phillips had given his OK.

Furthermore, Judge Phillips went on record officially at the annual conference of the 10th judicial circuit in Estes Park, Colo., July 7. Here is what he said:

"At first I had some doubts. But after carefully going over the safeguards that were thrown around the experiment I reached the conclusion that it could not do any harm. There are two results that are on the credit side: One is proving, I think, demonstrating that juries generally do a good job. I think it demonstrates that."

"The other thing is important that Judge Murray suggested, instructing a jury. As my good friend Mr. Rooney indicated, it is a difficult problem. No matter how you couch your language it is difficult to present a charge that will be clear and plain and intelligent to the jury. If we discover in a particular case from one of these recordings that the jury didn't understand the charge, that on a critical issue the charge was misleading, we will avoid those mistakes in the future."

Five ex-presidents or top officials of the American Bar Association also approved the Wichita experiment as a means of improving the American jury system. Brownell, however, didn't know any of this at the time he launched his attack.

Official Warns Coal Industry Vital to Nation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A coal industry official said Tuesday night that an adequate coal industry is a major part of America's defense against surprise attack and he warned that the industry might not have time to reach peak production in another emergency.

L. C. Campbell, president of the National Coal Assn., said "our country would have to turn again to the coal mines for fuel and the energy to power America to victory."

"No other fuel is available in quantities to do the job," Campbell told the 18th Joint Solid Fuels Conference here. He said the country has been "partially disarmed" to the extent that the industry could not immediately step up its production to meet the emergency demand.

Campbell pointed out that an annual production of 300 million tons was necessary as a safe level for national security.

He said the 1954 production fell more than 100 million tons short of that minimum and he predicted the 1955 production might be 50 million tons short of the safe level.

Campbell, vice president of Eastern Gas and Fuel Associates, Pittsburgh, criticized federal and state governments, which he said in many instances have followed policies and permitted practices seriously impairing "the capacity of the coal industry to meet future needs of the nation in peace and war."

Parental Flareups Are Not Harmful

CHICAGO (AP)—Parents who flare up at their children occasionally shouldn't worry about it, according to a woman psychologist.

"Parents are human and are subject to stress and strain," said Helen Ross in a recent issue of the National Parent-Teacher. "But annoyance at the moment is not as damaging to the child as withholding of love."

Miss Ross, teacher, lecturer and administrative editor of the Chicago Institute of Psychoanalysis, said the parent ideal as set forth today does not always make allowance for normal impatience and the day-to-day wear-and-tear in all families.

"Perhaps it is time to say that this is all very natural and that youngsters are rarely hurt by their parents' annoyance, so long as it is not chronic or mean," she explained.

She said pre-school children "can be particularly annoying," and it is at this time that parents need the most patience. Exercising understanding and affection, she feels, is a better way to teach appropriate behavior than instilling a fear of punishment.

But even more important, she concluded is for parents to understand themselves—their own moods and temperaments. This makes it easier to deal with their children.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

What doest thou here, Elijah? — I Kings 19:9.

We cannot run away from trouble. With God on our side we are certain of success. Be patient and courageous. We just can't quit.

Washington. She and Basil Rathbone staged a program of dramatic readings in Helen's old home town just after the Dodgers won the series, later came to Washington where Democrats turned out en masse. It looks as if the powers that be in the Democratic party were out to harden Adlai Stevenson. Governor Leader of Pennsylvania has been advised to get off the hook for Adlai. Senator Kerr of Oklahoma is scheduled to come out for Harrison. So is Governor Gary of Oklahoma. The boys who made Adlai in '52 now seem bent on unmaking him.

Stevenson insists he is no prophet of doom, but he seemingly cannot quite bring himself to join those who stress the cheerful aspect.

He may well be utterly sincere in this. As we have seen, the concern with some parts of the economy is not limited to him. But it is also true that his party has made it kind of stock in trade to view the economy with alarm.

Ever since the Democrats' politically profitable campaigning against the specter of depression, this approach has seemed almost inevitable.

So when this theme is sounded afresh, it is difficult to gauge where earnestness leaves off and deeply ingrained political habit takes over.

PONTIAC OFFERS NEW FOUR-DOOR HARDTOP FOR 1956—Exciting news in Pontiac's beautiful new line of 1956 automobiles is the Star Chief Custom Four-door Catalina Sedan. The fleet, luxurious model, finished in custom colors with matching leather and nylon fabric interiors, rides on a road-leveling 124 inch wheelbase. Its new, larger 227 h.p. Strato-Streak V-8 engine and the revolutionary new Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic transmission makes the car the smoothest handling, most powerful ever produced by Pontiac. In 1956, Pontiac offers the popular four-door hardtop sedan in all series. The new Pontiac will be on display Friday at Pool Pontiac Sales, local dealer.

New Pontiacs On Display Friday at Pool Garage; Feature New Transmission

The new 1956 Pontiac will be on display Friday in the Pool Pontiac show rooms, local dealer. The new models introduce a completely new Hydra-Matic transmission. Called Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic by Pontiac engineers, the new transmission is designed to provide smooth, quieter shifting of gears.

The Pontiac Strato-Streak V-8 engine, introduced last year, is larger in 1956 with horsepower upped to 227 in the Star Chief and 205 in the 870 and 890 series. Fifteen new body styles, longer by 2.4 inches, include six "hardtop" Catalinas, three of them four-door and three two-door. "Hardtop" models are available in all three series, the Star Chief, 870 and 890. There is a choice of 57 new colors in "Vogue" two-toning or solid colors. Interiors utilize new fabrics and leather in a wide range of colors.

"Pontiac is proud to be the first to introduce a big and vital General Motors first—Pontiac's new Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic transmission," R. M. Critchfield, General Motors Vice President and General Manager of Pontiac Motor Division, said today. "In over two million test miles this revolutionary transmission system demonstrated smooth, effortless shifting. There is no interruption in transmitting power to the real wheels and gear action is barely noticeable. This positive action insures unhampered acceleration for quick, safe maneuvering."

Pontiac offers three Strato-Streak body series in 1956. Longer by 2.4 inches overall, the 15 new body styles have a longer, lower looking silhouette.

Most luxurious of the three series, the Star Chief line consists of the custom Catalina two and four-door "hardtops," four-door sedan and convertible, on a 124-inch wheelbase and the Safari Station Wagon on 122-inch wheelbase.

In Pontiac's middle-priced 870 series with 122-inch wheelbase are the Catalina two and four-door "hardtops," a four-door sedan, a two-door two-seat station wagon and four-door three-seat station wagon.

Comprising the low priced 800 series, the Star Chief line consists of the custom Catalina two and four-door "hardtops," four-door sedan and convertible, on a 124-inch wheelbase and the Safari Station Wagon on 122-inch wheelbase.

More Liability Insurance Needed By Motorists

SPRINGFIELD — Illinois motorists may as well face it: They need more auto liability insurance. Those with minimum liability protection, at least.

That's the word today from state officials who administer the financial responsibility provisions of the law.

Otherwise he has to post adequate surety, or else lose his right to drive.

The new insurance requirements are effective Jan. 1, 1956.

Secretary Checks Ability

The financial responsibility section of the secretary of state's office investigates the "ability to pay" of persons involved in an accident or who are convicted of serious traffic violations. If they can show such ability they are granted financial responsibility certificates.

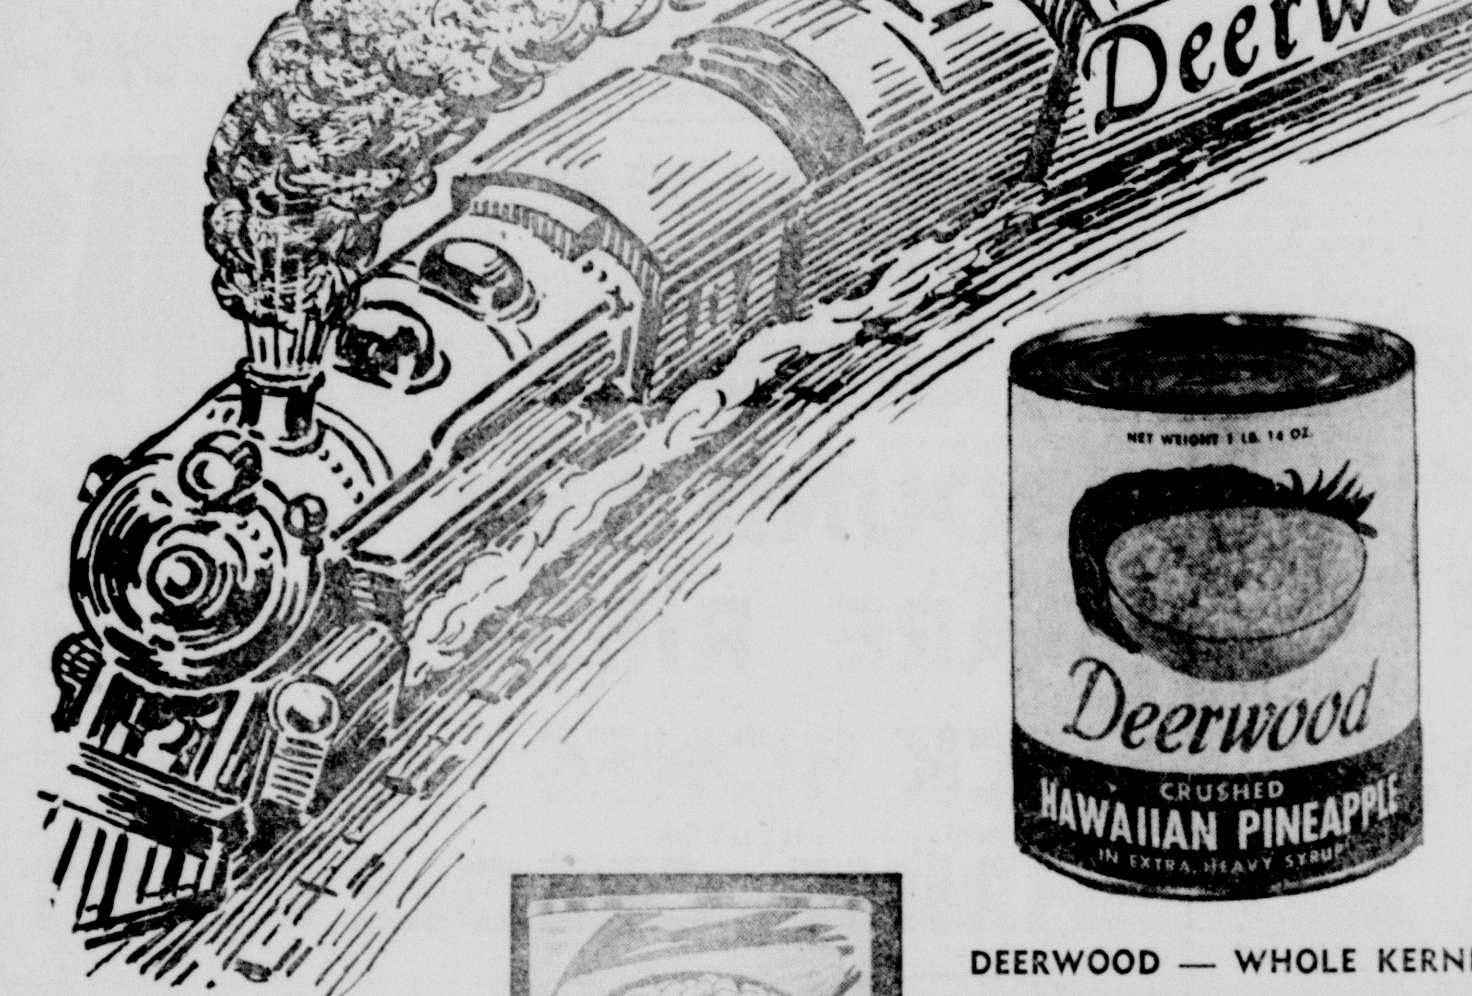

The section reported about half of the certificates now outstanding are covered with sufficient insurance to meet the new higher requirements.

Most of the certificates issued since the law was signed in May have been covered by the larger amounts of insurance. Insurance agents lost no time in informing clients of the new requirements.

Most liability insurance is written for amounts higher than the legal minimum, particularly property damage, which is seldom in amounts smaller than $5,000.

Pension Plans Cover 62 Million

CHICAGO — The development of programs to provide Americans with steady incomes when retired or unemployed is one of the biggest changes in the economics of this generation, the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago said in its monthly review, Business Conditions.

The bank estimated that while only four million persons were under public or private pension programs 25 years ago there are more than 62 million people covered by these benefits today.

Of the 62 million or so building up pension funds, and this includes almost everyone who is employed, 12 million are covered by private programs the bank said. Social Security covers nearly all of these and about 50 million more, while other public plans provide for an additional 7½ million persons.

In addition to this retirement coverage, the nation also has a program to provide almost 40 million workers with unemployment benefits.

All told, the money tied up in retirement and unemployment compensation programs was estimated at more than $65,000,000,000, nearly a third of which is in private pension funds. And this sum is expected to grow in the next few years at an annual rate of at least $5,000,000,000, the bank said.

Funds Not Hoarded
But trust funds do not hoard all of this money away from the nation's stream of purchasing power. The bank explained that managers of pension funds often invest some of the money in corporate bonds and common stocks, thereby providing business firms with money to finance production.

When the money is invested in mortgages, it helps consumers buy homes. And when trust funds buy up securities issued by such public borrowers as school districts, cities and states, the dollars help build roads, schools and waterworks essential to a growing economy.

The bank pointed out that because jobless claims are highly unpredictable, unemployment funds usually are held in liquid form. Benefit payments to the retired, on the other hand, can be predicted long in advance, so private pension funds can invest more heavily in less liquid assets, such as stocks.

Social Security funds are required by law to go into treasury issues. The Federal Reserve Bank explained that if Social Security deposits were invested otherwise, the government soon would own a substantial interest in American industry.

Perfumed Town
So extensive is the manufacture of sweet-smelling essences in Grasse, France's big perfume center, that perfume odors pervade every street in the town.

3,543,414 Tons of Coal Produced in State During September

SPRINGFIELD — Illinois coal production hit 3,543,414 tons in September to continue its monthly gains over 1954. State Mines and Minerals Director Ben H. Schull reported today.

The September production total was 101,924 tons below August output, but 14,422 tons more than the mines produced in September, 1954. Production each month this year has shown an increase over the corresponding month last year.

Mine accidents killed 2 men and resulted in injuries to 82 during September. A total of 15 men have been killed and 729 injured so far this year in mine accidents.

The September tonnage was produced by 109 mines in 32 counties. The mines employed a total of 11,668 miners.

"I'm dusting!"

THE STORY: Robert Deane, an American, is thoroughly bewildered by Viggo Sand's strange passengers aboard a yacht presumably bound for the Caribbean to seek treasure. Deane's partner, Bertrand Lynch, a British detective, is trying to frighten Viggo into revealing more about the voyage. Lynch says he is "planning something for tonight."

VIII
I hoped my tone and expression were discouraging. I know they were discouraged.

"You may have observed," Lynch went on, "that forward of the lounge, opening out of the same stairwell, is a smaller room which Sand uses as an office. The door is never locked."

"That surprises me," Lynch said. "It does not surprise me. Viggo Sand's operations are of so grandiose and secret a character, so frequently, I suspect, illegal, that I would expect him to be allergic to documents of any sort. He is certainly not the kind of man to trust important papers to the feeble security of a locked door. In that room, however, is a safe, fairly cleverly concealed. But I have located it," Lynch beamed. "I suggest, Bobby, that you and I devote the remainder of our evening to trying to break into it."

I had heard him out. Now it was my turn. "Bertram, there are occasions when I think you're completely off your rocker. This is one of them. This is a yacht. It is full of people, of congenitally alert and hostile people. If Sand caught you trying to bust into his safe I wouldn't put it past him to have you killed. Accidentally dropped overboard or something."

Lynch stopped me with an impatient gesture. "I must remind you, Robert, of something which you seem to have forgotten. This mission of Sand's, whatever it may be, is of sufficient importance to have come to the attention of my government. Washington has been informed and is equally concerned. I am under orders to take risks."

"Why," I inquired feebly, "do you need me?"

Lynch smiled. "Every safe-cracker, Bobby, needs a lookout." He produced from his hip pocket a well-worn looking leather pad, flat on one side and rounded on the other, tightly filled with small buckshot, and attached to a leather loop about six inches long.

"Your luggage," I remarked bitterly, "must have been of unusual interest to the U. S. Customs."

"In London," Lynch explained matter-of-factly, "this is called a 'sap.' A most effective, and generally a harmless, weapon. You know how to use it?"

"My education has been neglected."

"Link the loop over your right wrist. Hold the pad lightly between your thumb and forefinger. If Heitzig—or anyone else—er, intrudes, swing your right arm smartly up, then down, with wrist motion, letting go of the pad just a few inches before you make contact. Don't be timid about it. On the other hand, don't overdo it."

Lynch went ahead. With a thief's caution and technique, he grasped the polished brass doorknob of Sand's study with both hands, bore down on it and slowly turned. The door opened with only the faintest squeak. We entered and Lynch gently closed it again, leaving us in total darkness.

Silently, he took me by the elbow and placed me against the wall in such a position that, if anyone should open the door, I would be behind it. Obeyingly, I held the blackjack ready for instant use. Lynch propped his flash-lamp on
